COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 1919.

NUMBER 32

Been and Going Again.

Mr. Allen Walker and Mr. John Lee Walker returned from Mississippi and Alabama last Monday night. They visited the settlement where Mr. C. S. Harris and Mr. R. K. Young are located and they are loud in their praise of the country. They say the land is as level as a floor, and no richer soil can be found in the Blue-grass section of Kentucky.

It is a great country for alfalfa, and that Harris and Young are now delivering their first cutting at $31.00 per ton. They will gather three or four crops. They state that the Adair county colony is perfectly delighted with their locations. There is a good demand for land which is selling from $80.00 to over $100.00 per acre.

Mr. Harris recently sold his boundary of 80 acres at a good profit and has purchased over 400 acres nearer to the town of West Point at $100 per acre, as fine a tract of land as can be found anywhere.

Mr. Allen Walker bought one-half interest in a boundary of 1,300 acres lying in Alabama, not far from where the Adair county people are located. This farm is well stocked with mules, cattle, hogs and sheep, and it has all the farming implements necessary for running. In the deal Mr. Walker gets a one-half interest of everything on the farm.

John Lee Walker says the only thing that kept him from buying, was ready cash sufficient, as the land was sold in large boundaries. He has an eye on a tract which can be cut into several farms, and if he can find two men who will invest with him, he will return and make a purchase.

Mr. Allen Walker is to be the manager of the farm he bought a half interest in, and he is to return at once. His family will follow him a little later.

Mr. J. S. Breeding accompanied the Messrs. Walker South. He did not make a purchase on this trip.

We regret to lose good Adair county citizens, but if they will leave, we want to hear of them prospering in all their undertakings.

Mr. H. N. Miller is thinking of razing the old house, on the Miller lot, on Water street, and having a nice cottage erected. We hope he will come to a definite conclusion and put up the building as it would be a great improvement on that street. The rental would more than pay the interest on the money invested.

In due time The News will publish the program for the Chautauqua which will begin the 22nd of July. A Chautauqua is educational, helpful to a community, and it should be well patronized. It gives the finest of music and the lectures will be delivered by noted men.

The oil interest in Adair county has not been active for several weeks, but those who are representing companies say that it will not be a great while until several wells will be sunk. Geologists, who have been here, say they are confident that there is oil in the county.

Mr. Allen Walker certainly has a good proposition in removing to his new possessions in Alabama, just over the Mississippi line. He is half and half with his partners in the land deal, and he is to receive $2,000 extra per year for managing the farm.

Dr. Ellers, of Louisville, assisted by Dr. O. P. Miller, on last Sunday, removed the tonsils of a child of Mr. and Mrs. Golan Butler, also a child of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Neat, and from a child of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hammond, Fairplay.

One hundred and fifty army trucks have been turned over to the department of agriculture, and they will be used in Kentucky for road purposes.

Children's Day, which will be next Sunday, will be observed by all the Churches in Columbia.

Church Dedicated.

The new Methodist church building, one-half mile this side of Bliss, near the Montgomery school building, was dedicated last Sunday. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. S. G. Shelly, Presiding Elder of the Columbia district. An immense crowd of people was present, more than could get in the building. Dinner was spread on the ground by the good people of the Bliss neighborhood, and there was an abundance for every body in attendance. Rev. Shelly preached in his usual fervent manner, and those who are acquainted with the speaker know that he delivered a most entertaining discourse.

The sum to be raised was $250 and $270 was subscribed.

The Thing to Do.

There is but one thing to do when a member of a family shows conclusive signs of unsound mind, and that is send the patient to an asylum or to a private sanitarium. The doctors of these institutions know how to treat persons thus afflicted, and it is often that a person's mind is restored in a very few weeks. Besides there is no disgrace in doing everything in your power to have the afflicted one cured. An Adair county man who went to Lakeland last winter, returning in a few weeks, perfectly restored, told us a short time after he returned, that it was the best place in the world for a man who was afflicted as he was. He attributes his restoration to the asylum.

SADDLE FOR SALE—Mrs. J. P. Hutchison, this place, has a good side saddle for sale. 32-2t

Throughout Southern Methodism the quota in the Centenary drive, was $35,000,000. Up to the middle of last week $50,000,000 had been subscribed, and the time for closing the drive was extended to the 15th of this month. It will easily go to $79,000. 000 is the general opinion.

All who are in debt to me for sewing please come and settle at once.

Mrs. ATOSA WILLIS.

A petition is now being circulated for means to build a rock wall from the entrance to the cemetery to the drive way. Every body who is able should subscribe and subscribe liberally. It will take about $35 to do the work.

Come and see the $1.00, shapes and $1.50 trimmed hats on sale, 10 days for cash, beginning Wednesday.

Miss Julia Eubank.

Some of our patrons have informed us that Mr. C. S. Harris' letters to The News are read with a great deal of interest. We take pleasure in stating that he will send a letter as often as he can find time to write.

Died in Cincinnati.

Mr. R. H. Price, who lives near town, received a dispatch last Saturday night, stating that his sister, Mrs. Mary Milligan, had suddenly died in Cincinnati, where she was employed as a saleslady. Mr. Price left early Sunday morning, to attend the funeral and burial which occurred at Louisville, where her husband, Mr. Jo Milligan, died about two years ago. The passing of Mrs. Milligan leaves only two members of this particular Price family, Mr. R. H. Price and Mrs. Nannie Scalf, who lives in Louisville. Much sympathy is felt for the brother and sister in this sad death. The deceased had many friends in Columbia.

There will be Fathers, Mothers, and Children's Day at the Christian church next Sunday, beginning at 11 o'clock. A good program is being prepared of recitations, songs and other exercises which will be rendered. It is desired that as many fathers and mothers and children will be present that day and worship together as possible. Everybody is invited.

H. B. Ginn and Mr. Cassady, of Moreland, Ky., are in a fine meeting at Jamestown. Some additions the first week and fine prospects for a great meeting. Mr. Cassady is a fine chorus leader and his solos are very much enjoyed by the people. The meeting will continue through this week and perhaps longer. The church is crowded at every service.

LAND FOR SALE.—30 acres of land, 3½ miles northeast of Columbia. There are ten acres in timber.

Phelps Bros. shipped three carloads of hogs last week to the Louisville and Cincinnati markets. They paid from 15 to 18 cents.

The Cumberland Presbyterians will commence a series of meetings in Columbia about the 12th of this month. They will use a tent.

Opportunity at Home.

Every few days we hear of young men leaving Adair county for another home, claiming that there is nothing to do here. The majority of these young men are farmers, and they go either West or South, when in reality there is plenty to do at home if they will look for it. A writer on the Lebanon Enterprise writes this very truthful suggestion:

Boys, the farm offers every opportunity one could desire. The soil lies laden with riches awaiting only our efforts to extract them. Every field or farm will respond willingly to our labors if we only study that farm or field, adapt ourselves to it and care for it. Let us rally around the standard of youth, remembering that the future of our country shall be what her young people make it. Let us show our fathers and mothers that the boys and girls of today shall be ready to stand forth fully equipped men and women of tomorrow. Let us show them that the rising generation which is following in their footsteps is fully competent to succeed them and shoulder the responsibility of the farm, the home and nation."

Gallant Soldier.

Veimer Aaron, of this county, who did valiant service in France, and who reached home several weeks ago, left last Friday morning for Jeffersonville, Ind. He was in quite a number of battles and was twice wounded, and is credited with having killed more than one German soldier. He is a fine shot and served as a sniper a portion of his time in France. He was in that country eleven months. He is very modest in speaking of the part he played in the war.

Road Tax Lost.

A very light vote was polled in Adair county last Saturday, the proposition being are you for or against levying a 20 cents additional tax for road purposes. Vote cast showed about three to one against. The three Columbia precincts, Gradyville and Miltown voted "yes." All the other precincts voted "no." The proposition will again be submitted.

In the Centenary drive the quota of the Methodist Church, this place, was $4,000. The workers, Mr. J. T. Goodman, being in charge, raised over $8,000. This is the best per cent. of any congregation in this part of the State. We are also authorized to state that Columbia district has gone over her quota which was $8,000.

A note from Buffalo, N. Y., unsigned, to The News, states that Wm. Z. Coffey and Louise DeBolt, of Akron, Ohio, were married on the 27th of May. It further stated that they were spending their honeymoon at hotel Statler, Buffalo, New York at Niagara Falls.

Gentleman's Agreement.

Kentucky has gained a widespread reputation for its women, horses and code of honor. Among the male population "gentlemen's agreement" is as binding as a formal legal document.

And it is held good in case between the wet and dry elements. Down in Christian County an agreement was entered into by these two factions that if the prohibition election which was scheduled for October, 1918, be called off, all the saloons would be closed April 1, of this year. Consequently, on April 1, the saloons were closed. Several of them have already been remodeled for restaurant, billiard and soft drink purposes. Because of the great demand for stores there will be practically no vacant buildings.

The demand for stores is only the natural result of prohibition—no booze, more money to spend for clothes and food.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. V. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKECARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in a dreadful condition." If you are nervous, rundown and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

Want Reduction in Property Tax.

The Kentucky Tax Reform Association at a meeting at Louisville decided to go before the next General Assembly in Kentucky in an effort to secure a gradual elimination of the tax on real estate in Kentucky for State purposes. It is argued that increasing taxes from intangible property and from corporations will provide enough revenue to make it possible to reduce State taxes on real estate gradually and finally eliminate them, leaving real estate subject to city and county tax only.

for many years real estate has borne the greater burden in Kentucky for the particular reason that it could not be removed or hidden from the assessor and because the attempt to impose excessive taxation on personal property from contributing its share.

The tendency elsewhere is to exempt land from State taxation and some of the States are following this practice in others the tax rates are so low as to make the taxes on land negligible.

Not Wanted by Mexico.

Jack Johnson ex champion pugilist, who came to Mexico about a month ago to stage a series of "boxing matches" is meeting with a cool reception there.

Johnson's first rebuff was when a delegation of guests at the best hotel in the city, where he put up, informed the management that his presence was objectionable. He left.

The second, when city officials politely but definitely informed him his exhibitions were "scandalous, immoral and degrading in the highest degree to public morals and would under no circumstances be permitted

Drug stores and restaurants, where the black pugilist and his white wife sought refreshments, have refused to serve him and to cap the climax, Johnson's frequent controversies with men from New Orleans have resulted in many invitations to fight—with Colts. Johnson's presence here is distasteful to the city officials as well as the populace.

Can't See Shell in Flight.

A correspondent writes the Scientific American: "The question has been raised in discussion whether or not the soldiers in France can see or hear shells fire by high-powered guns in time to dodge them. Will you please answer this question for us if you have information available?"

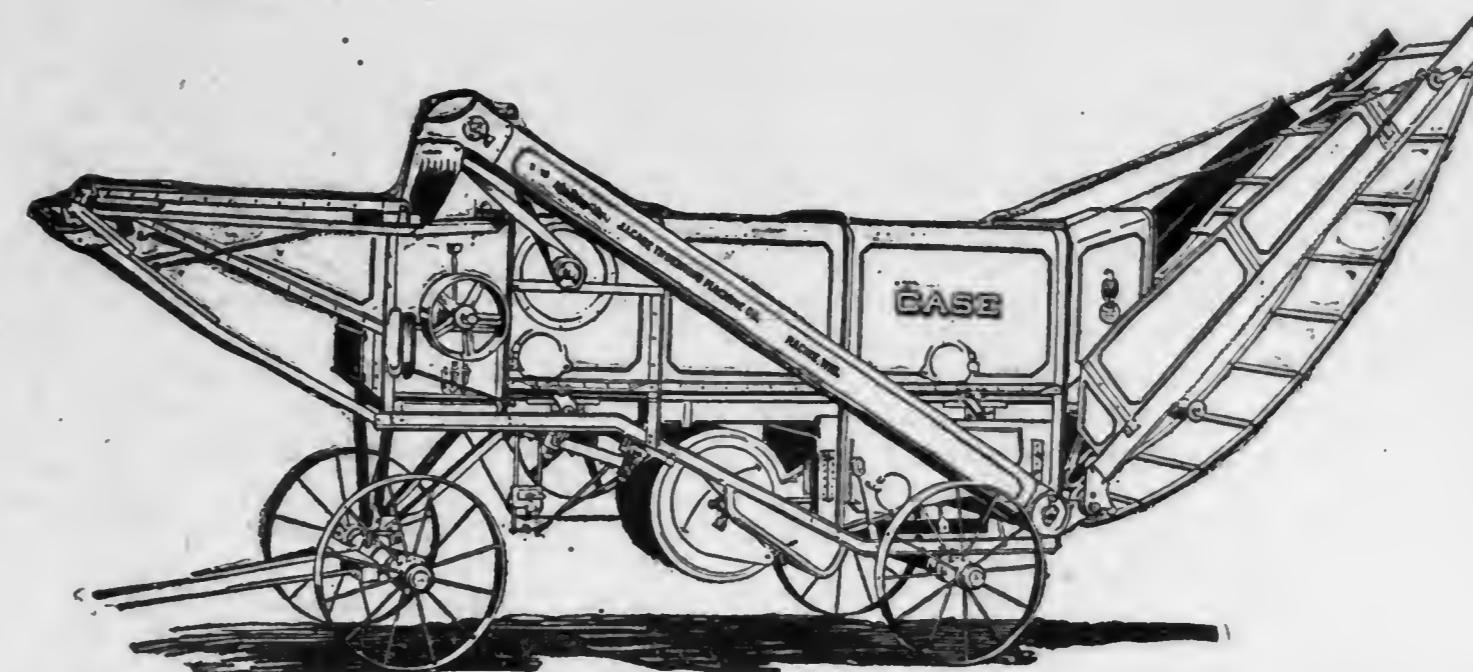

Here is the answer: Sound travels in warm weather 1,120 feet per second. A high-powered rifle produces a much greater velocity in the shell. The gun cannot be heard before the shell reaches the place to which it is sent. Nor can an object moving past one with such a velocity be seen. If it were coming directly toward one it might be seen when near enough to fill a perceptible angle. That shells have been seen to go past, rests upon very uncertain foundations.

State Board of Control issued an order that in the future all Convicts who make application for parole must be able to read write. The order was issued in an effort to aid the fight against illiteracy in the State.

KENTUCKY.

Draft horses are commanding good prices on the Chicago market. Wild commotion along the horse line was caused last week by a Belgian order for 125 head of drafters. The steamer rate is now $125 against $40 at the beginning of the war, and the shipper must pay feed bill and incidentals, which make the cost of transportation $165 per head, from Chicago. At this rate, no considerable volume of export trade is expected. Good drafters are selling on the Chicago market at from $240 to $300, as high as at any time this year.

The case is on trial at Mt. Clemens against the Chicago Tribune for a million dollars for calling Henry Ford anarchist. Henry must think that newspapers have as much money as he has.

Dawson Springs is soon to be a scene of active building operations when the Government hospital for soldier and sailors is begun. It is estimated that $15,000,000 will be spent there.

An immediate reduction in the price of wheat extending from the producer to the baker is believed assured.

Cheer for the Consumer.

After a perusal of the statement issued by Wheat Director Barnes, following his conference with wheat producers, jobbers, millers and bakers, one obtains the impression that it is possible that the consumer may expect cheaper bread and flour this year. In view of the fact that Providence has blessed the United States with the greatest crop ever known in the history of the world, it is, indeed, reassuring to the people that they may be permitted to participate in this bounty.

To be sure, the wheat growers will get the guaranteed price of $2.26 a bushel for their grain, even though the market price is below that. But the middlemen have agreed to take a stated commission, the millers have consented to limit their profits to a specified figure and the bakers are "willing to enter into a contract by which they would reflect at once in their products the lower price of flour made effective by the mills."

"In this way," says Mr. Barnes' statement, "down to the retail trade there is thought to be an assurance that reduced price of wheat should be effective immediately all down the line." Thus the wheat raiser, the wheat buyer, the miller and the baker have consented, unless the retailer proves obdurate there seems to be a fair prospect that the 110,000,000 consumers of bread in this country will be permitted to buy it at less than war prices.

At least the promise is held out that the ultimate consumer will reap some benefit from the bumper wheat crop. But not until the various interests "all down the line" have been carefully conserved—farmer, jobber, miller, baker and retailer,

The Woman Suffrage Amendment passed the House by a vote of 304 to 89, a majority of both Democrats and Republicans voting for it. Will probably pass the Senate early next week.

The dome of the United States Capitol at Washington is kept in excellent condition by painting it every few years. For this work forty painters are steadily employed for three months' time. Over five thousand gallons of paint are required for one coat. The reason for painting the Capitol dome at regular intervals is to prevent disintegration of metallic surface.

THE COSMETIC OF THE INANIMATE.

I am the savor of surfaces.
I am the world-old preserver.
Noah knew me, for he pitched the ark within and without.
The Pharaohs sought me as an adornment for their tombs—their mummies endure because I conserve.
I am the woad of the ancient Britons: their blue battle hue.
Because of me the treasures of the Sistine Chapel defy effacement.
I am the keeper of the antique.
I am the servant of progress.
Columbus found me bedecking the savages who watched him plant Ferdinand's banner on the shores of New Spain; and the very sails of his caravels resisted the elements of the West through my aid.
The pioneers westward wending their way daubed the prairie schooners with my protection.
I am the royal robes of civilization's monarchs, Steel and Lumber.
The taut wings of the airplane gleam under my protective veneer.
The sullen dreadnaught and the homing transport plow the seas impervious to corrosion because of me.
I waterproofed your agents of destruction, the bullet and the shell.
Then I drew the mercy of my concealing camouflage over your hospitals.
I glisten on the homes, and on the barns, and on the cement surfaces.
Where life is, I am alive.
Where death and decay set in my absence hastens them.
And my mission is to preserve.

"How did you get hurt?" asked the doctor of the American soldier in France, as he slowly recovered consciousness.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

We are authorized to announce Mr. Jas. R. Garnett a Democratic candidate for the State Senate in the District composed of the counties of Adair, Barren and Metcalfe. His candidacy is subject to the action of the voters at the August primary.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

We are authorized to announce C. Haskell Miller, of Metcalfe county, a Democratic candidate for the State Senate, in the district made up of the counties of Adair, Barren and Metcalfe, subject to the action of the voters at the August primary.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce that Judge C. A. Hardin, of Mercer county, is a candidate for Congress, in the Eighth district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Democratic candidates for Governor are conducting their canvasses principally from their respective headquarters. Judge Carroll is the only candidate who has visited Adair county.

The question "Will the German's sign?" reminds us of the groundhog story. A man was digging for one, and a friend came along, stopped, and asked: "Do you think you will get him?" "Of course I will get him; I am out of meat."

One paper stated, last week, in substance, that Black ought not to be nominated because his kin people were all Republicans. A good reason why he should be nominated. They will all support him at the November election.

The Democratic National Committee met in Chicago last week to formulate plans for the next Presidential campaign. Every State in the Union was represented. Each member had a report from his State, and they were all enthusiastic over the prospects of the Democratic party remaining in power.

The Democrats of Kentucky should bear in mind that the Republicans will make a desperate effort to carry the State at the November election, and they should commence now and urge every Democrat to be at the polls on the day of the general election. The stay at home vote might lose the election.

Emmet Burch, who shot and killed Raymond O. Emery, who charged ruined his daughter, Verda, who is only sixteen years old, the killing occurring in the Starks building, Louisville, less than a year ago, was acquitted by a jury in 52 minutes last Sunday. The jury occupied too much time. The verdict should have been written in 5 minutes.

Appalling conditions in countries of eastern Europe, imposing on American Red Cross obligations additional to those assumed during period of war, and continuation of activities in connection with already outlined domestic program of the American Red Cross, make necessary an appeal to the people of America for further funds to carry on work for relief of humanity.

Judge John D. Carroll, of New Castle, Democratic candidate for Governor, was here last Thursday, meeting his old friends and forming the acquaintance of new ones. It was the Judge's first visit to Columbia, and he made a very favorable impression.

He stated that there was no excitement in the race up to the present, but that he was meeting with encouragement throughout the State. At present the Judge is the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, and is a lawyer of well-known ability. He is a high gentleman and he spoke in the most complimentary terms of his opponents.

The police force of Louisville must be negligent of its duty. Every morning two or three robberies and shootings are reported as having occurred the night before. Many of these outrages are being perpetrated right in the heart of the city. Louisville is a great city and the people who live out in the State are proud of its growing population, but at the same time they can not see why a stop is not put to all the devilment that is going on there nightly. If she has not men sufficient to police the city, increase the force. The war is over and everybody is clamoring for safe living, and when country people visit the metropolis they want to know that they will be protected while walking the streets.

Judge C. A. Hardin will have no opposition by a Democrat in his race for Congress. It was generally conceded throughout the Eighth district that he was the logical candidate. The Democrats of Adair county will support him to a man. He is a son of the late Judge Charles A. Hardin, who was born and reared in Columbia. A way back years ago his father delivered an address before the student body of Center College, Danville. In that address he took an occasion to refer to Columbia. He said "Columbia is my old home, and I venture the assertion that you can go over that town now and you will find every boy and girl who has reached the age of fourteen years with a fairly good education, and every boy who has reached the age of seven a good swimmer in the 'old long hole' where the water at places is ten feet deep."

Alvin York, of the Three Forks of Wolf, in Tennessee, is credited with having killed twenty-six Germans and of capturing one hundred and twenty-five. Since his return to the States he has been signally honored. His valor was known before he left France. He is in Congressman Hull's district, and when he reached Washington Mr. Hull met and conveyed him to the halls of Congress, seating him in the gallery. He then announced on the floor that York was present. Every Representative in the hall arose and clapped their hands. His Tennessee admirers are now raising him by donation, $50,000 with which to buy him a farm. His name will go down in history as one of the greatest fighters the world ever produced. He is a local preacher, and when drafted he asked to be released because he did not want to kill, but reading his Bible, he concluded that it was his duty to defend his country against a heartless foe.

Smith's Chapel.

Mr. Alvin Page, who was in the war service, arrived home Wednesday. His parents and friends gave him a hearty welcome he is looking fine.

Mr. Will T. Smith and daughter, of Highland Park, Ky., are visiting relatives and friends at this place.

Sunday-school at this place is progressing nicely with good attendance.

Miss Nona Smith, who has been very sick is able to be up again.

Mr. Penick Smith is in a very low condition.

Mrs. E. J. Page is better at this writing.

Brice Walker and Joe Willis, who have been in France, for some time, are at home now. We are glad to have the boys back with us again.

Ed Wooldridge, of Columbia, a discharged soldier, who has just returned from a fourteen months stay in France and Germany, was visiting his cousin, Rollin Webb and wife, last week.

Miss Ella Sartuels who has been visiting in Gulfport, Miss., for several months, returned home a few weeks ago, accompanied by her uncle, Elbert Webb and family.

Clarence Marshall and wife, who have been at Lynch, Ky., for some time, have returned.

C. A. Walker made a trip to Louisville, last week, to visit his grandson, Brice Walker, who was in Camp Taylor, having been overseas.

The Masons had a big jubilee here last Saturday. Lots of eats and they took in some new members.

Private Jeff Barnes and James Breeding have arrived home from France. We were sure glad to welcome them home again.

A very large delegation from here attended the war lecture at Antioch, last Wednesday night, made by Privates John Rose, Alfred Baker and Monfred Lewis. Lewis, Rose and Baker were decorated for bravery. 1,800 of their detachment were killed or wounded, and there were only eight of them left sound and they held their line under shell fire for four hours. Hurrah for Johnnie Rose and Alfred Baker.

Sanford Hurt made the highest average of any one in the county examination. Rollin Patton made second best. Both live at Breeding.

Dear Mother:-

I have arrived at last at Aix-Les-Baines, France. We had a long night, "believe me." I thought it was about twelve hours. It was about 10 o'clock when we arrived. All this morning you could see snow cap mountains, called Mt. Blanc. The third highest Mt., in the world. Also a beautiful lake near this place. We are staying at hotels. My, one is the Hermitage hotel. All the buildings are very beautiful. I have a room all to myself. A room to a visitor in peace times would cost five dollars a day. Our meals are free. Does not cost us nothing. A place where no revelry or retreat.

The Y. M. C. A. has taken over a very large hotel called the Casino.

A place where Harry Thaw had his gambling house. It sure is magnificent. Something like the Seelbach hotel, but larger by twice. There are about fifty Y. M. C. A. women here. Meals from them very cheap in the Casino. You can take a Franc (20c) and get enough.

The trip I am taking would cost a visitor from the States five hundred dollars to see. All I am out is a little chocolate, gum, and a few cakes, may be if I care to buy them.

Goodbye, From your son,
Chester Scalf.

April 29, 1919.

Dear Mother:-

Four days have passed of real life and comfort in Aix-Les-Baines. Most of my time is spent in the Y. M. C. A., reading the daily events. It is a very large Y. M. C. A. can hold four or five thousand men at a time at the canteen, where eats and lunches are served. There are fifty Y. M. C. A. girls who serve you, so you see how large it is. There are more than forty thousand men on leave here at one time. You can buy all you want to eat for one meal such as coffee or hot chocolate, two slices of bread and butter, one slice of bread with jam, cake and one orange. I sleep every morning until 9 o'clock and the first morning I arrived I slept until ten. When I return, which will be in two or three days, I will not know how to get up at 6 o'clock. Did you receive my Louisville, Ky., June 2.—"I didn't know what a 'well day' was for years until Trutona brought me the relief from my troubles that I had been searching for so long" Mrs. Fred Thompson, 820 Third avenue, wife of the superintendent of the Superior Welding Co., here, said recently. "I suffered from stomach and intestinal indigestion and nervousness for years," she continued. "I tried every kind of treatment in a vain effort to find relief. Recently I had been losing weight steadily.

"Trutona, I'm happy to say, has put me in good condition. I have improved in every way. My digestion is restored and the nervousness has disappeared. I'm gaining weight right along now. I attribute this change to Trutona and I consider it a splendid medicine."

There is no season of the year when Trutona may be taken to better advantage than in the spring. Hundreds of people are now finding a wonderful reconstructive agency in Trutona.

Farm Work Open for Soldiers.

According to specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture identified with placing discharged soldiers in agricultural work, Georgia, Michigan, Montana, Iowa, Idaho, Virginia, Kansas and Missouri all are in need of skilled farm labor. Conditions at the army camps where the men are discharged show a surplus of opportunities for profitable work and a deficit of laborers. In a word, there are more farm jobs at present than there are men to fill them. At Camp Upton little information was available on farming opportunities in the New England States. However, through the activities of the State and Federal Departments of Agriculture and the county agents complete information is now available. The county agents not only secure information about farm-labor situations but they also assist soldiers in getting started right in new communities. If there is any question about the job being still open, the authorities will either telegraph or telephone for the applicant and obtain definite up-to-the-moment information. At this writing farm work is available for all discharged soldiers experienced in country life.

Soldiers Take Notice.

Certificates, with which the Victory button, the regulation insignia of the veterans of the world war, may be obtained by soldiers mustered out of the service previous to the issue of the button have arrived at the headquarters of Camp Taylor from Washington.

The War Department recently ordered a lapel button for wear on civilian clothes to be issued to all officers, enlisted men, except members of the Students, Army Train Corps, field clerks and members of the Army Nurse Corps, who served honorably in the United States army for a period of at least fifteen days during the emergency between April 6, 1917 and November 11, 1918. The button which will serve as a recognition of honorable service rendered the nation during the crisis is similar in design to that awarded the G. A. R. veterans at the close of the Civil war. The button will be silver for those wounded in action, according to the War Department circular, and bronze for all others.

For the present the Victory button will be issued at the time of discharge to those entitled to the distinction, and upon application to those already released for the service. Later, the button will be issued to all persons remaining in the army who are entitled to the decoration.

Those soldiers who were discharged prior to the war Department order may obtain a button by communicating with the supply Officer of the nearest military post, camp or the station, including recruiting offices of the army. All discharged soldiers of this vicinity should mail their application to Maj. J. S. Conger, Camp Supply Office of Camp Zachary Taylor.

The request will be accompanied by the discharge paper of the applicant or a true copy sworn to before a civil or military officer designated with this right.

Y. W. C. A. UNIFORMS TO CLOTHE STUDENTS

Suits Worn by War Workers Will Be Given to Penniless Students in Switzerland.

Official uniforms of the Young Women's Christian Association minus the Blue Triangle, the Association insignia, will be worn next winter by women students who have been stranded in Switzerland during the war and who, because of lack of funds, inability to re-enter their native country, a desire to finish their university courses or because they have no family to which to return, will remain there next year.

Elizabeth M. Clark, who has been in Switzerland for ten years under the World Student Christian Federation, has appealed to the National Student Committee of the Y. W. C. A. for clothing for the 300 foreign women students in Switzerland. The scarcity of clothing last year among these almost refugee students made it necessary for two girls to share one coat so that only one could go to classes or go out of doors at a time.

Four large packing cases of all kinds of used clothing, save hats, which is in good condition, have been collected hastily from women college students in the New England States, Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware by the Student Committee of the National Y. W. C. A. to be sent over in response to Miss Clark's appeal. This clothing will be dyed, cleaned and made over in Switzerland.

In addition to the clothing collected from students in colleges nearest New York a case of uniforms, which have been turned in by Y. W. C. A. secretaries who did war work, and the official gray uniform sisters is being sent. As uniforms are being turned in by war workers they will be claimed by the Student Committee, which will remove the insignia and prepare the uniforms so that they may be worn by these women who have been forced by world events to remain in Switzerland for several years.

QUEEN MARIE INVITES Y. W. C. A. TO RUMANIA

Extends Invitation to Overseas Workers in Paris.

Paris, April 21.—Queen Marie of Rumania, following a conference with a representative committee of the American Y. W. C. A., held at the Ritz Hotel, Paris, has invited the American Young Women's Christian Association to come to Rumania and open work under her patronage.

Among the representatives of the Y. W. C. A. present at the conference were: Miss Harriett Taylor, head of the American Y. W. C. A. work overseas; Miss Mary Anderson of Hudson, Wis.; Miss Mary Dingman, head of the Y. W. C. A. industrial work in France; Mrs. Margaret B. Fowler of Pasadena, Cal., and Miss Charlotte Niven, head of the Y. W. C. A. work in Italy. A notable guest at the meeting was Madame Gatarji, wife of the secretary of the Rumanian legation in Paris.

Y. W. C. A. WORKER IS DECORATED.

Miss Marion Porter of New York City was decorated the other day in the name of the Chaplain General of the American army with the Church War Cross.

Her citation was for her moral and spiritual contribution to the war.

For more than a year Miss Porter has been at a hospital center in Vittel, France, as a representative of the Y. W. C. A. in charge of a nurses' club there.

A new department of finance has been organized by the Y. W. C. A. for its work in France. Miss Constance Clark of Pasadena, Cal., is the executive. Miss Clark before her recent coming to France was director of the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House at Camp Lewis, Washington.

All contracts, leases and rentals for new buildings will be handled by Miss Ethel Austin of New York City, an experienced architect and builder, who will work through this newly created section.

Plans for remodeling and decorating houses, clubs and hostess houses taken over by the Y. W. C. A. will be in the hands of Miss Mary Buchanan, an interior decorator, who comes originally from Scotland, but who has been working in France for the American Y. W. C. A. since the beginning of its war work there.

In addition, the department is compiling lists, suggestions and general shopping guides for all the buying of the Association in France, including all kinds of building equipment from cretonne curtains to plumbing supplies.

A cafeteria expert will have a place in the department to act as general advisor on restaurant and cafeteria projects of the Association throughout France.

In short, the department is to be more than finance alone. It is to be a kind of general advisory department and clearing house for all other departments in the French association—a department where dollars will be measured up against deeds and needs.

ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY INSPIRING PHRASE

CITATION OF SOLDIERS AN INCENTIVE TO CIVILIANS TO GO THE LIMIT.

WHAT BOYS SACRIFICED

Read These Records of Heroes and Then Consider the Little You Have Done.

Picture this scene for yourself: the hot day in July, the heat waves dancing over the wheat fields, where the delayed harvest had turned the standing wheat dry, brown and dead:

"After his platoon had gained its objective along a railroad embankment, Private Dilboy, accompanying his platoon leader to reconnoiter the ground beyond, was suddenly fired upon by an enemy machine gun from one hundred yards. From a standing position on the railroad track fully exposed to view, he opened fire at once, but failing to silence the gun, rushed forward with his bayonet fixed, through a wheat field to the gun emplacement, falling within 25 yards of the gun with his right leg nearly severed above the knee, and with several bullets in his body, with undaunted courage, he continued to fire into the emplacement from a prone position, killing two of the enemy and dispassing the rest of the crew."

So reads the brief citation of an American private, who died in the wheat field to the east of Belieau Wood, July 18, 1918.

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action with the enemy," runs the citation.

"Above and beyond the call of duty." How many times that sentence has appeared in the records of the American fighting man in France.

Private Dilboy charged through a shattering fire of machine gun bullets, ripped and torn with steel slugs, bayonet fixed. He was shot well nigh to bits when he stopped, but he still had it in him to kill two Germans. And he fell face to the Hun machine gun. Something "Above and beyond the call of duty" carried that American private soldier straight to death.

His Life For a Friend's. Here is another brief citation of a Californian who died as a man and American should:

"Above and beyond the call of duty," and there were scores of them, like Corporal Roberts drowned in the shell hole of Montrebeau Woods, October 4, 1918. Willie Sandlin of Hayden, Ky., won his citation on Sept. 26, in Bois de Forges. Says the report:

"Sergeant Sandlin showed conspicuous gallantry in action at Bois de Forges by advancing alone directly on a machine gun nest which was holding up the line with its fire. He killed the crew with a grenade and enabled the line to advance. Later in the day Sergeant Sandlin attacked alone and put out of action two other machine gun nests, setting a splendid example of bravery and coolness to his men."

"Above and beyond the call of duty." That was the manner in which Americans fought and died over in France. What have you done?

Men From Mid-West.

There was a first lieutenant from the little city of Salina, Kan. Lieut. George Robb was in action near Sechault, France, September 29-30, last year. He was severely wounded by machine gun fire, but had to be ordered back from his platoon to the dressing station before he would go. He was back within 45 minutes, on duty all night, establishing outposts, inspecting his lines. At daybreak he was again wounded. Later in the day a bursting shell added two more wounds to those he had suffered. This shell killed his commanding officer and the other two lieutenants of his company, so Lieut. Robb stayed on the job. He was the sort of an American who felt something "Above and beyond the call of duty."

Many of them died as Capt. Alexander R. Skinner of St. Louis died, on September 26, 1918. He fell at the little hamlet of Cheppy, France, a place that will be remembered so long as memory lasts by the men of Missouri and Kansas who fought with the 35th Division. Says the report:

"Unwilling to sacrifice his men when his company was held up by terrific machine gun fire from iron pill boxes in the Hindenburg line, Capt. Skinner personally led an automatic rifleman and a carrier in an attack on the machine guns. The carrier was killed instantly, but Capt. Skinner seized the ammunition and continued through an opening in the barbed wire, feeding the gun till he was killed too."

So run the terse, short, plain tales of the men of America who have been cited for the sort of heroism that is deathless. "Above and beyond the call of duty." They were not content to be just soldiers. They had in them something more than doing their duty. It was to be "Above and beyond the call of duty," and every man of them was given that glorious citation which included "For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity."

HOSTESS HOUSE FAMILY REUNION

How It Happened to Entertain Only A. E. F. Mother Who Visited Army of Occupation.

BIG CORPORAL DUTIFUL SON.

No Knightly Courtiers Ever Acted With More Gallantry to Lady Fair Than Did He and His Doughboy Pals to This Little White Haired Woman Dressed Exquisitely in Black.

By GRACE GOULDER.
(With the American Y. W. C. A. Overseas.)

Coblenz, Germany,

March 28 (By Mail.)

It happened right here in Coblenz. A big corporal came into the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House and asked for the director, Miss Ruth Woodsmall, who comes from Colorado Springs, Colo. "Could my mother stay here?" he began at once, trying his best to cover his excitement.

"Your mother!" gasped Miss Woodsmall, "How did your mother ever get here?"

"Well, she isn't here yet, but if she comes will you keep her?"

"Of course I will, but—"

She didn't finish, for the boy had smashed his cap back on his head and was out of the door on a run.

The corporal's visit remained a mystery for two days. Then one evening just at dusk a little white-haired woman dressed exquisitely in black appeared in the sitting room of the Hostess House, and the corporal was hovering behind her, trying to be beside her and back of her and in front of her all at once. He was carrying her coat—a big fur one. With them were three doughboys, pals of the corporal. They tried to keep in the background, but their eyes were glued on her face.

Everyone in the sitting room sat at attention. There are no English speaking men or women out of uniform in the Third Army area. Yet here was a woman in civilian clothes. Mothers are unheard of with the army. But this was a mother, everyone knew. After awhile someone found out about this mother.

Had Been Interned During War.

She and her husband, who were born in Germany, but had been naturalized, lived in San Francisco. Before the war they left for Weisbaden, Germany, that their invalid daughter might have treatment at this famous health resort.

They brought their other children with them. One was Walter, a small boy, and the other was Ralph, now Corporal Stepp of the American Army.

When the war was declared they sent Ralph back to America, because he was of military age, and they did not want him to fight for the Kaiser. Then America entered the war.

Mrs. Stepp—Mrs. Anna Stepp she is—told this part of the story:

"Until a month ago I hadn't heard from Ralph for two years and a half—even before America got in the war mail was held up. I didn't know whether he was in the army or not—but I was sure he was, because—well, because he is an American." Here she stopped a minute to smile up at him.

"After awhile we heard from some friends that he was in the army—and that he had come over here. That was all I ever knew. It's nearly five years since I have seen him!"

"Of course it was awfully hard—I couldn't get word to him and he couldn't to me. My husband used to tell me it wouldn't help Ralph any for me to cry. I tried not to—before the rest of them anyway. My daughter got worse steadily—she is no better. We couldn't get the proper food for her after awhile. And she hated to see me worried about Ralph, so I used to try to keep up before them."

"Last January my husband came to Coblenz about his citizen papers. An American soldier in Ralph's company who was in the office heard his name and asked him if he was any relation to Ralph. He didn't tell him. Ralph was in Coblenz, but went after Ralph. He didn't tell Ralph his father was here. When they met they couldn't believe their eyes."

"Ever since then I have been trying to see Ralph. He couldn't come to Weisbaden because it was out of the American area; and I couldn't get through until today—more than two months."

"They asked her if her Ralph had changed much in all that time."

"Oh, yes—very much. But do you know, I think it is because all that long time when I didn't know where he was or how he was—I got in the habit of thinking of him as he was when he was a baby—I kept seeing him as a baby and remembering the way he felt when he was little. Isn't that queer? And now look at him!"

And the corporal tried not to see the adoration in her eyes.

"Five years is a long time to wait to see your boy," she murmured, and kept her eyes on him. Again she had tormented the people around her.

The corporal cleared his throat. "This is why I ask d you if you could keep my mother, Miss Woodsmall. I didn't want her to come unless she had a good place to stay. Ah, e-e-thanks awfully."

And that is the story of how the Hostess House happened to entertain the only known A. E. F. mother who has visited the Army of Occupation.

KENTUCKY VETERANS BEGIN ORGANIZING

American Legion Plans To Take In Nearly 100,000 Former Soldiers And Sailors

PARTISAN POLITICS BARRED; RANK NOT AN ISSUE

Hardinsburg, Ky., May 26. (Special).

—One hundred thousand Kentuckians, soldiers, sailors and marines, who wore the uniform in the great war, at home and abroad, are forming throughout the State what will be units of The American Legion, the great association of veterans started early this month at a national caucus in St. Louis, at which all existing posts for such an organization were amalgamated and at which a program was laid down to enable every precinct, county, town, city and State to begin organizing.

Until the St. Louis meeting, projects in various parts of our State and nation were held in abeyance because of the lack of definite national movement, though in all quarters there existed a strong sentiment for an early association through which could be perpetuated the ideals for which the war was fought, through which the returned soldier and sailor could become more of a factor in Government and through which all things that stand for right, progress, and undiluted Americanism could be upheld. Now, with a definite and amalgamated national organization, Kentucky veterans are going ahead.

Appointment of an Executive Committee for Kentucky and a call for a meeting of that body at The Seelbach, in Louisville, Saturday, May 31, is announced by Judge Henry DeFlaven Moorman, of this county, who was elected temporary State Commander by the Kentucky delegation in St. Louis. D. A. Sachs, Adjutant, has been directed by the National Executive Committee to proceed with the incorporation of the Legion in Kentucky. These articles of incorporation and the date upon which organization meetings will be held simultaneously in every county in Kentucky will be considered by the Executive Committee at this meeting, as well as other important matters.

Under authority given him in St. Louis, Judge Moorman has appointed an executive committee as follows:

Roger D. Williams, Lexington, State-at-large; M. L. Sosnoff, Louisville, State-at-large; V. G. Fraser, Wickliffe, first district; M. K. Gordon, Madisonville, second district; Dr. John Young, Glasgow, third district; S. H. Jones, Elizabethtown, Ky., fourth district; Emett O'Neal, Louisville, fifth district; William Cromwell, Frankfort, Sixth district; George R. Smith, Lexington, seventh district; John Muir, Danville, eighth district; Walter Mobley, Olive Hill, ninth district; Sewell Combs, Hazard, tenth district; Vernon Faulkner, Barbourville, eleventh district; George Ewald, of Louisville, is the State Finance Officer.

The Kentucky Delegation, at St. Louis, recommended chairmen for some of the districts and authorized the State Commander to appoint a chairman and two vice-chairmen for each Congressional District. Immediately after the Executive Committee meets, these appointments will be announced. The district chairmen will then promptly designate a person in each county to officially organize a post at the county seat, and to aid and assist elsewhere, but each post shall elect its own officers and manage its affairs without outside interference.

The tentative organizations now being formed will receive charters later through the State organization. The absence of charters, however, Commander Moorman explains, does not deter the immediate formation of posts in precincts, counties, towns or cities. Under the constitution adopted by the national caucus, any fifteen or more eligible veterans can associate themselves together in the formation of a post. In the Fifth district, embracing Louisville, the organizations of such branches has been undertaken by Chairman McMeekin along the lines of military organizations in which Louisville men were largely represented, such as the 336th National Army Regiment, the former First Kentucky National Guard Regiment, etc., and also along the lines of large institutions or industries from which there were a large number of soldiers or sailors who participated in the war. The method of organizing posts is being left to the local organizers. Each post, however, will have a commander, vice commander, finance officer, adjutant, chaplain, and master-at-arms.

Louisville has been made Southern headquarters of the National Committee on Publicity and Information, of which George S. Wheat, of the New York Herald; Ulric Bell, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, and Jack Collier, of Pocatello, Idaho, are members. Returning veterans are applying to Southern headquarters for information, and it will be given them as received from National and State Headquarters.

Throughout Kentucky, according to reports reaching Southern headquarters, much interest is being manifested in the Legion, not only by former service men, but by their mothers and fathers and other loved ones interested in seeing their soldiers permanently identified as having taken part in the struggle for liberty. When the date is fixed for the county organization meetings these meetings are held, it is expected that these sentiments will be crystallized. Kentucky gave the lives of 2,000 of her sons to the cause. Preservation of the memories of these heroes and their deeds is an aim of the Legion. But there will be practical help to the returning soldiers in the organization, according to plans outlined by the temporary organization, which, as it composes the delegates who went to St. Louis, is the present nucleus of the movement in Kentucky. Bureaus will be established for the purpose of obtaining employment for returned soldiers, and for obtaining information on war risk insurance, bonuses, compensation for disability and other subjects in which he or his family had a vital interest. New works of this nature will be taken up as the policies of the Legion are defined.

The American Legion had its inception in Paris last year when a group of reserve and National Guard officers of field rank, gathered in Paris on an official mission, took advantage of the opportunity to suggest a permanent association of veterans. These pioneers quickly saw the necessity of making the Legion a medium for not only the overseas officer, but for the enlisted man and for those officers and enlisted men who were denied the privilege of "getting over" as well. In the same manner, the Navy and Marine Corps were taken in.

The Paris conference suggested that a representative meeting be held in St. Louis May 8, 9 and 10 in order to sound the sentiment of those now on home soil. At this caucus, which took place under auspicious conditions, no permanent organization was formed, although forty-seven states were fully represented, it being decided to withhold decisive action until the great convention which will be held November 11 in Minneapolis, which will be more truly representative and which will enable many of those now on the other side to participate. It is planned for the veterans of every county to have a part in the naming of delegates to this convention in November.

The rebuke given Chicago at the St. Louis meeting, when the delegates refused to hold the November convention in that city because of its allegedly un-American Mayor, is well known, but is regarded of vast significance to the part to be taken by the Legion in the nation's affairs. It is well settled and understood that the Legion will not be used as a partisan organization, or tolerate any selfish or improper motives, but will strive to accomplish the noble purposes enumerated in the preamble of its constitution, and will be a real medium of service to its members, to the state and nation and those who follow.

PROHIBITION TO BRING COMMUNITY PLAYHOUSE

Hazel MacKaye Advises Using Buildings as Centers for Drama, Community Sings and Entertainments.

Why not turn the corner saloon into a community playhouse when the law effects the closing of these gathering places, asks Miss Hazel MacKaye, director of the Department of Pageantry and Drama of the National Young Women's Christian Association?

"I went over on the West Side of New York one night recently to attend a community drama meeting," Miss MacKaye says in explaining her theory, "and as I was riding along I noticed how many saloons there were—one on every corner and another in the middle of the block, it seemed, all just blazing with lights. Those lights ought not to go out with prohibition. They ought to shine for something worth while to all of the people, and what better than community drama and singing?"

Miss MacKaye feels that the war has given a great impetus to popular interest in drama and that through pageantry and drama a great deal in the way of Americanization can be effected.

Through the community center, if it be in a district populated largely by one foreign nationality, these people could present pageants of the life in their mother countries, translating them into English, so that Americans and also the younger English speaking members of their household could understand and appreciate their traditions. American art would be greatly enriched thus through the drama of all of the nations whose peoples have settled in this country. On the other hand American ideals, American history and American festivals, even laws such as child labor and minimum wage, could be interpreted to these people by means of pageantry.

"People have been learning not only to work together, but to play together," Miss MacKaye says, "particularly, since the war, when the people stood together in drives and large patriotic community entertainments. The opportunity to build up a great community organization is now at hand, and the time is ripe for it. Why not utilize the corner saloon?"
